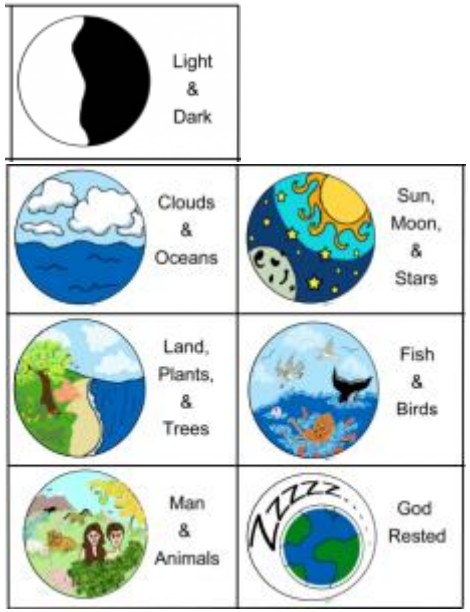
Who made the world?

In R.E we will be doing all about the Creation story in the bible. The children will be considering 'Who made the world?' Within this unit the children should be asking questions and will create artists impressions of what happened on each day.



Can you remember what happened on each day in the creation story?

What words would you use to describe God?

God separated light from darkness. He called the light "day" and the darkness "night".

Why did God make light first?
